[illegible] Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that on Saturday, October 15th, 1887, at 1 o'clock p. m., there will be a meeting of the Republican electors of Precinct No. 11, Pueblo County, Colorado, at the [illegible] in said Precinct, for the purpose of electing delegates to the Republican county convention to be held on Saturday, the 22d day of October, 1887, and for the transaction of such county business as may properly come before said meeting. The basis of representation in said county convention will be one delegate for every [illegible] votes cast for the Republican candidate for Governor at the last general election, and one additional delegate for a fraction of [illegible] votes cast for said candidate.

The polls will be opened at [illegible] o'clock p. m. and closed at [illegible] o'clock p. m. of said day.

By order of the Republican County Central Committee.

[illegible]

Chairman.

[illegible]

Secretary.

Precinct Committeeman.

Sheriff Dameron went to Denver on official business yesterday.

A change is made in the arrangement of the Midland time table this morning.

County Assessor Perkins has closed his office to the public until the first of February.

General Alexander Boyd of Washington, was among yesterday's arrivals at The Antlers.

Rev. G. W. Hinkle, secretary of the Cascade Land and Town Company, was in the city yesterday.

It is not yet known whether the prohibitionists will place a full county ticket in the field this year or not.

Mr. G. W. Musser has gone to Monument and Wagon Wheel Gap on the [illegible] that place on the 20th inst.

The supply of water pipes for the [illegible] extension has been exhausted and work has been temporarily suspended.

Mr. L. Ward shipped a two-year-old colt, the offspring of the celebrated stallion Hero, to Dallas, Texas, yesterday.

Two carloads of household furniture for the use of new residents were received at the Denver & Rio Grande depot yesterday.

From present appearances neither County Clerk Eaton, County Treasurer McHenry, Assessor Perkins or County Coroner Davis will encounter any opposition for re-nomination in the republican county convention.

A [illegible] Monument Company of Colorado Springs and Mr. Metz, Agent of Denver, [illegible]

Bonds and coupons for the Grand Island & Colorado Railway Company, which [illegible] will be placed on sale at the [illegible] on and after January 1st.

The [illegible] Bonds of the Pueblo & Arkansas Valley Railroad Company [illegible] Bonds [illegible] for redemption.

Dan Conner, of the Western Union Telegraph Co., Mr. Reynolds, of the Postal Telegraph Co., Mr. Alexander, of the Pueblo Telegraph Co., and Mr. Wall Gosch.

G. W. Davis, who is managing the jewelry establishment of the Bond Co. [illegible] has received a full line of holiday goods, which are known to the trade as the finest in the market.

Superintendent of the Water Works Frost has [illegible] of [illegible] fire plugs in the city. [illegible] Two more forty-foot pipes in the City Park will have to be placed.

Hon. David Moffat will [illegible] to accommodate [illegible] the democratic county convention. The name of Dr. G. W. Lawrence is spoken of in connection with the nomination for coroner.

Mr. John L. Hendricks has just returned from a brief trip to Missouri, where he purchased twenty carloads of fine horses for his livery stables. This lot of horses comprises some of the finest roadsters ever brought to this city.

Mr. F. H. Messer has resigned his position in Mr. P. G. Rowe's real estate office and has accepted a place on the staff of the Howard College observers at this place. Mr. Messer and Mr. C. F. Schmidt will conduct the observations on the peak, alternating with each other every two weeks.

A legion of select Knights of A. O. U. W. will be organized in this city tonight. Grand Deputy Commander W. T. Boyd, of Denver, will be present and institute the officers. All members of Badito lodge are especially requested to meet at their lodge room at 7 o'clock this evening.

It is stated that when the Manitou water system is placed in operation that this city will have between 2000 and 3000 feet of pipe in the ground at that place. Some of Manitou's generously inclined property owners have made the suggestion that it would be very well in Colorado Springs to [illegible] Manitou's present of the pipe.

The New York express going south on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road which arrives here at 12:01 p. m. will [illegible] every two days. One will go through to Kansas City and the other will be attached to the California express at La Junta. Heretofore passengers were compelled to [illegible] without a sleeper from 9 p. m. to 6 a. m.

Though freight trains will probably not be run over the Marshall [illegible] Denver until the [illegible] the passenger [illegible] Denver & Rio Grande railroad will handle the freight of the road over the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, and run a local freight between Pueblo and [illegible]
